

Monthly Chapter Meeting

Chapter History 1995 - 1996
Our 74th Year

President Jim Baxter started the year off with a tour of Ontario Hydro Technologies Complex, in Etobicoke. The dinner speakers were Frank Lenarduzzi, Bill Jones, and Dave Young. Dinner was catered in the Hydro cafeteria. The topics for the evening were the latest in commercial envelope design for both new and retrofit applications, what's going on in the world of heat pumps and energy recovery in building systems.

John Dugan, Chairman of Region II addressed the November meeting at the Novotel Hotel in North York and thanked the Chapter for hosting the 1995 CRC.

The dinner speaker was Laurel Williams, Coordinator for the Women in Engineering Program at Ryerson University. She discussed the "Discover Engineering Camp" held last summer.

Anne Spangler from ASHRAE Society, Director of Education also talked on the importance of Society's Educational Programs.

"Historical Night" at the Novotel Hotel, found Mr. Don Rich talking on the "History of Carrier" for a cold December night.

January's meeting was extended because of holidays, so the meeting was held on the 8th at the Novotel Hotel, in North York. The speaker was Mr. L.M. Robertson, who spoke on the Internet and its impact on the HVAC Industry.

February found Mr. Robert D. Stevens discussing Environmental Noise and HVAC Design, at the Novotel Hotel.

The March dinner meeting involved the overview of the global trends in refrigerants and the Federal Government's position, especially on HCFC's as well as evaluating the impact of the recent Montreal Protocol Vienna meeting on the Canadian refrigeration and air conditioning stakeholders. The speaker for the evening was Mr. Jim Armstrong, Chief of the Chemicals Control Division, in the Commercial Evaluation Branch of Environment Canada.

A seminar was held in the afternoon of Refrigeration Day, with Vas Georgiou, Murray Weightman, Mike Rosenblitt Paul Pilutti and Keith Madill presenting papers.

April belonged to Ian Jarvis from Rose Technology Group, who informed the members on Energy Performance Contracting in Canada. At the pre dinner tutorial John Cowan spoke on measuring energy savings.

The May meeting was held at BCE Place and the dinner speaker was Ms. Barbara Hopewell a Senior Associate with Zeidler Roberts Partnership. She talked on the design of tall buildings in cold climates and renovation of Commerce Court.

The new Board of Governors was installed and Barry Willhelm the new Chapter President received the gavel from Jim Baxter.

The Golf tournament held in June was at the Glen Cedars Golf Club, low member net was, Joe Evanoff, low net non member, Doug Mason. The now gross member was, Bill Weir, and low gross non member was Len Timmerman.

